SERVICES HELD TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Flora Gardner, who died Sunday at her home northeast of Rushville, were held this afternoon at the late residence, and burial made in the Raleigh cemetery. Among the survivors, it was unintentionally omitted Monday that the deceased besides leaving the husband, Carney Gardner, and two daughters, Viola and Naomi, also is survived by her mother, Mrs. Anna Wolung of this city.

NOW COMES THE

MAGNUTROL

Price $65

Can Be Bought on Easy Payments

Magnus comes now with the "Magnutrol," a five-tube compensated radio-frequency set. A new development in radio reception, it deserves the consideration of one who desires the utmost in receiving apparatus.

The Magnus Magnutrol is not the result of chance. It is the product of an organization where for six years better electrical apparatus has been manufactured. The Magnus trade mark stands for quality and the Magnutrol is an embodiment of months of scientific and electrical research in receiving apparatus and represents a true quality product at a remarkably fair price. The Magnutrol is selective, efficient, economical in cost, and without, it combines in its outward appearance the careful and artistic touch of the master craftsman.

To see and hear the Magnutrol is to feel the urge of possession. I will be glad to demonstrate it and tell you more of its good features.

Notice of Election to Members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association

TO OUR MEMBERS—

Pursuant to action of the Board of Directors, you are hereby notified to assemble in mass meetings at the Court House in the county in which you reside, SATURDAY, AUGUST 22nd, 1925, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for as delegates in the primary election to be held at the Court House from the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. to 4 o'clock P. M., Saturday, September 19th, 1925. The delegates elected at said primary to meet at your district convention to be held at the County Seat in the county casting the largest number of votes in each district, at 2 o'clock P. M., Monday, September 21st, 1925, at which time said delegates will select a Director for your district.

The basis of representation in the election of Directors shall be as follows: The unit shall be one full vote for each one million pounds of tobacco delivered out of 1924 crop of tobacco to the Association by such county. When the quantity of tobacco so delivered runs into fractional parts of one million pounds, then the representation of such county shall be in exact proportion to the number of pounds so delivered.

Twice as many candidates as there are delegates to be selected in the primary election of September 19th, 1925, should be selected at the mass convention of August 22nd, 1925, and the names so selected in each county will be printed upon the ballot for that county, and a ballot mailed to each member.

Each member is entitled to one vote, regardless of the number of acres of tobacco grown by him or her; and the ballot voted by him or her must be signed by him or her and deposited with the officers of the election, or mailed to said officers before the hour of 4 o'clock P. M., Saturday, September 19th, 1925.

Mass meetings of August 22nd, 1925, will be called to order by a member of the Association, designated by the President of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association, and said meeting will select their own officers, including three competent members to conduct the primary election of September 19th, 1925.

Through the chairman and secretary, the names of all the candidates selected to be voted for in the primary election of September 19th, 1925, and the names of the officers selected to conduct said election will be immediately certified to the Secretary of the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, Lexington, Ky. The name of the person elected Director by the meeting of September 21st, will be certified to the President of the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association by the chairman of said convention immediately after his election.

Besides ballots mailed to each member of the Association, the election officers in each county will be provided with ballots to the number of twenty per cent of the membership of each county, and in the event a member appears at the election unprovided with a ballot, said officer will deliver to him or her one and only one ballot; but each grower is hereby urged not to lose or misplace the ballot mailed to him or her, but to mark and vote that ballot either in person or mail it to the election officers before four o'clock Saturday, September 19th, 1925.

By order of the Board of Directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association.

JAMES C. STONE, President and Gen. Mgr.
H. LEE EARLEY, Secretary and Treasurer.

STATE CHAMPIONS ARE ROTARY GUESTS

tance lends enchantment and that acres of diamonds are not in some distant land, but under our own feet. He alluded to the migration to the sand wastes of Florida, when Rush county has such bountiful opportunities.

Mr. Tittsworth said four state agriculture champions in one county was a thing no county in Indiana could boast of, yet Rush county was not half as large as many counties in the state.

He introduced Mr. Meal, who spoke for a few moments regarding the value of the ten litter club work, but said that the name was now a misnomer as the last ten litter winner weighed two tons and that there was prospects of this year's winner weighing three tons.

Miss Wissing, who was accompanied by her sister, graphically described her career in club work which began in 1920 when she joined a Walker township pig club. She told of the prizes she had won in canning club competition, which culminated with her winning the sweepstakes in the canning club show at the state corn show at Purdue last January. As a reward, she was taken with other club winners on a tour to Washington this summer and was granted the honor of presenting Mrs. Coolidge with a can of her fruit. She selected pears, she said, because it was a native Indiana fruit.

"I did not come here today to try to make a speech," said Mr. Wagoner, "but rather in a small way to show the appreciation I feel for the good work of the Rushville Rotary club. And I believe the majority of Rush county farmers appreciate this just as much as I do."

Mr. Wagoner said that the crop prospects were "simply immense, the best probably we ever had." He said the corn could lose ten points between now and maturity and still be close to a record breaker.

"Then I think how blue we were last spring," he added, "after that freeze when it looked like everything was gone."

"There are few crops raised even here in Rush county in which at some time or other there is not a blue time. And we would rather it would come, if it must come, in the beginning rather than at the end.

The crop prospect generally is good. But there doesn't seem to be any concern over an overproduction. Yesterday I took a load to the elevator at $1 per bushel. I see December corn quoted at 85 to 87 cents."

"So it seems even with an immense crop we will get a fair price. There are now so many new uses for corn, so many articles made from corn. You know a good while ago there were only three leading articles made of corn; that was corn bread and mush and red liquor. We have outgrown the corn bread and mush and outlawed the liquor."

"But there are plenty of uses for our big crop. One of the most important is produced on nearly every Rush county farm—the one in which my neighbor, Mr. Meal, is engaged in establishing and promoting, the 'ham what am.'"

Mr. Wagoner described the history and origin of corn as a wonderful story, and gave it briefly. He also made a plea for protection against the European corn bore, which he said was a deadly menace. He pictured what the results would be if Rush county would lose its corn crop.

Jeffersonville Rotary, which is sponsoring the outing, has planned a boat ride on the palatial steamer America. This is one of the most sumptuous and biggest excursion boats on inland waters and will accommodate a crowd up to 4,000 on a single trip, however. Mr. Martin stated that the boat had been reserved for Rotarian members and that no outsiders will be permitted on the excursion.

A special interurban will leave here at 6:30 a. m., arriving at Jeffersonville at 10:00 a. m. The boat will leave at the foot of Spring street, Jeffersonville, at 10:30 for Rose Island, a summer resort, twelve miles above Jeffersonville. Rose Island has been leased for the entire day for Rotarians only and plenty of amusement has been planned for all attending. There will be baseball games, athletic events, music, refreshments, and, in fact, everything that goes to make a full day's outing.

A sumptuous lunch will be served at Rose Island at noon, during which there will be a few short talks and Mr. Martin emphasized that these talks will be more than short.

Mr. Martin stated that a professional playground instructor will be there to take care of the youngsters and to provide amusement for them throughout the day so that the Rotarians and Rotary Anns can enjoy themselves thoroughly.

The boat will leave the island at 4:00 o'clock, arriving in Jeffersonville in time to leave on the special at 5:45, which will put local Rotarians home by 10:00 p. m.

Quite a large attendance from

Rushville is expected, fifteen of the local members already having signified their intention of attending.

TODAY IS BAND DAY AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

noon instead of the evening, due to the fact that "Bubbles," which was presented last night, has been better received this season.

The verdict of chautauqua patrons was that "Bubbles" was a much better and more entertaining show. The actors received a liberal amount of applause.

"The best company we have sent out on the independent chautauqua program for years, is the Little American Opera Company."

This is the word received by the local program committee from the Coit-Alber Independent Chautauqua company regarding the attraction at the chautauqua Wednesday. This company will give a postlude at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and a complete program in the evening at 7:30.

The change in the afternoon program was made at the request of Sam Small, famous southern evangelist, who will speak. He requested permission to speak before the opera company sang because of his desire to leave earlier in order to make his next engagement.

Nearly $5,000 has been spent by the chautauqua company in equipping the Little American Opera company with stage settings, scenery and costumes. It is truly a scenic production and one of the biggest things ever attempted on the chautauqua.

The artist who produces the costumes for the Chicago Grand Opera company, designed and made the costumes which the Little American Opera company uses. They are made of very fine material and made up just as if they were to be used by the Chicago Grand Opera company. The curtain, scenery and lighting effects were designed and made by one of the most famous theatrical producers in Chicago.

A Gasoline Famine

With gasoline prices soaring and each increase being credited to rising petroleum prices, it is encouraging to note that the idea of a gasoline famine was ridiculed as a groundless bugaboo at the annual convention of the American Chemical Society.

The price of gasoline or a satisfactory synthetic substitute will never exceed 25 cents, it was said, due to tremendous natural resources, hitherto wasted and now on the brink of development, which will revolutionize the petroleum industry, stabilize the motor industry and relieve permanently any possibility of a gasoline famine.

Gasoline is by far the largest single item in operating an automobile and it is to the interest of the automobile industry that a supply be assured at a reasonable price.

The present price of approximately 25 cents, varying a few cents in different localities, is generally regarded as too high, and any means that may be devised to reduce the price will be welcomed by millions of automobile owners.

It was stated in the chemists' symposium that benzol, which will produce twice the mileage a gallon and leaves no carbon in the motor, can be retailed at a cost of only 3 cents more on the gallon than gasoline.

Benzol has already driven gasoline from German garages, according to report. Hasten the day when benzol will replace gasoline in Amer-—brings joy to you and your friends.

EVERY man, woman and child wants to have strength and correct weight. It means the joy of living. To be minus strength and underweight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S.S.S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body.

More red-blood-cells! S.S.S. aids Nature in building them by the million! There are no unproven theories about S.S.S., the scientific results of each of its purely vegetable medicinal ingredients are admitted by authorities. Begin taking S.S.S. today. It will give you more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Dairyman's Dollar Buys More

The Indiana farmer's dollar from the sale of butter, eggs, and chickens is now worth a dollar and nine cents in merchandise, according to computations of the Blue Valley Creamery Institute, which finds that the combined purchasing power of these three farm products is now a four year pre-war level for the same month.

Last year and for several years after the war when the Indiana farmer took a dollar received in payment for farm products to the store to buy manufactured commodities, he found his dollar would buy only sixty, seventy or eighty cents worth of goods compared to the dollar's worth it would buy in pre-war days.

Prices of Indiana farm productions have now advanced to a point where today a dollar's worth of butter, eggs and chickens not only brings the farmer a hundred cents worth of needed articles but even nine cents more than the dollar he received for these particular products before the war. It is well to bear in mind, say the Institute experts, that it is not the number of dollars the farm receives for his butter, eggs, or poultry but what these dollars will buy in shoes, shingles, suits, salt, seed or silos that count.

Enough Meaningless Laws

Hardly a day passes in Washington but what some politician does not give out an interview relative to the bill, or bills, that he intends to introduce at the first session of the next congress. If all these measures that have been talked about are introduced congress would have to be in session many many months to give them all consideration.

It is more than likely, however, that the leaders of congress will not permit the consideration of any "freak" legislation, as they are aware that the president and the people want only such laws as will materially benefit the country and help continue the prosperity that this country enjoys. There are enough laws on the statute books now that mean nothing. The present administration is determined that the best that can be done for the people by legislation will be done but it does not intend to lend its aid to the passage of any measure merely that some individual may get his name before the public.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—A national religious fight—in Congress—threatens now.

It was with a view to starting one that L. H. Wittner, Washington government employee, launched his suit to tie up the pay of District of Columbia educators who teach the sciences. All of them, he says, are disrespectful of the Bible—if one accepts it literally.

WITTNER submits that: The Bible says the world was made in six days. Geology says not.

The Bible says man was specially created. Biology says he was evolved from a lower form of life.

The Bible says the tongues were confused to stop the building of the Tower of Babel. Philology tells a different story.

The Bible says the Creator set a rainbow in the sky. Physics accounts otherwise for rainbows. The Bible says Joshua made the sun stand still. Astronomy denies it.

The Bible says water was turned into wine. Chemistry says it can't be done.

NOW Congress, in making its last appropriation for the District of Columbia public schools, forbade the use of any of the money to pay instructors who teach "disrespect of the Holy Bible."

Wittner asserts that's just what all the scientific ones are doing. As a taxpayer, he wants their salaries stopped.

Neither a fundamentalist nor a scientist, he explains that his suit's purpose is to force the issue of "church and state." He charges that the former is getting increasingly officious in the latter's affairs. He aims to put an end to it, if he can.

FIFTEEN YEARS

From Daily Republican

The robber who took Kennard Allen's bicycle Monday night from the back yard at the Kennard home in Second street, evidently wanted a little "joy ride" as he returned the stolen property last night.

The fact that Mrs. U. G. Beaver of Fourth street went down stairs last night after she had once gone to bed probably saved her house from being entered and robbed. Mrs. Beaver, in walking down stairs, awakened her daughter, Wilma, who cried out that a man was attempting to get through the window into her room. The screams of Mrs. Beaver together with that of her daughter frightened the man away.

Mrs. James Collee, who resides in North Washington street, met with an accident of no great consequence, but one that is very painful yesterday afternoon while sewing, by running a portion of a needle in her finger to the bone and breaking it off, while part of it was concealed in her finger.

Miss Bertha Kirkham is attending teacher's institute at Lovington, Ill. Miss Kirkham will teach mathematics and history in the high school in that place the coming term. (Center.)

Mrs. John H. Frazee, entertained the Happy Go Luckies yesterday at luncheon at her home in North Harrison street.

Miss Florence Mahin is visiting friends in Connersville. She attended a reception given by Mrs. W. J. Greenwood in honor of her guests, the Misses Brown of Alabama, last night.

Miss Elizabeth Haydon of Nealtown, Jessamine county, Kentucky, is the guest of her brother, Hillary Haydon in North Main street.

The Misses Joy and Madge Shelby of Lebanon and Miss Edith Buell spent today at the home of Miss Mary Williams near Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hackman of this city and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hackman of Batesville left today on an eastern trip to Atlantic City, Philadelphia, New York and Washington. While in New York they will buy their fall lines of goods.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horst and Mr. and Mrs. John Soren of Shelbyville will be the guests of Mrs. Minnie A. Herronville tomorrow at her home in North Morgan street.

Republican Chairman James K. Bowers entertained two prominent political guests Wednesday in the persons of Otis E. Guley of Danville candidate on the Republican ticket for secretary of state and Postmaster Robert Bryson of Indianapolis, says the Shelbyville News. Judge Will Sparks, Nathan Weeks, candidate for representative on the Rush county Republican ticket, Charles Frazee, postmaster of Rushville and Verne W. Norris, clerk of Rush county and chairman of the Republican central committee of Rush county, attended the meeting.

Check up on your balloon tire pressures—you may find that you have been riding on "high-pressure balloons" and losing the advantages of true low air pressure.

THE whole purpose of low pressure cushioning is defeated if your balloon tires are pumped up too hard.

Of course, it may be that the kind of balloons you are using must be run hard in order to protect the tires themselves.

If you find this is true, you will be glad to know the facts about U. S. Royal Balloons.

These tires provide all the comfort that balloon tires are intended to give, and yet you need have no fear about the life of the tires when run at proper cushioning pressure.

U. S. Royal Balloons are built to be run at true low air pressures.

They have the new flat "Low-Pressure Tread."

This tread has far greater area of road contact than a round tread, and distributes the weight evenly over the entire tread surface.

That is why U. S. Royal Balloons wear slowly, evenly and gracefully.

They have the further advantage of Latex-treated Web Cord construction—a U. S. Rubber Company invention that gives the ideal combination of strength and flexibility essential to real balloon cushioning.

Ride on U. S. Royal Balloons and you will know what a world of comfort genuine low pressure can give.

FANNING WITH ARRELL

To Counteract Lively Ball

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Aug. 11.—Form shown by Bill Tilden in his early season tournaments indicates that the same old story will be repeated at Forest Hills in a few weeks, and that he will win another national tennis championship.

Until the champion overwhelmed Billy Johnston recently in the Skokie tournament it looked like he might have some real competition in the national championships.

He was beaten early in the season by Vincent Richards and he had the narrowest escapes with Harvey Snodgrass and Howard Kinsey at Skokie. After losing the first match to Richards he came back and beat the youngster three times, and his game against Johnston at Skokie indicated that he might have been stalling in the earlier rounds against Snodgrass and Kinsey.

Tilden has the dangerous habit— even in championship competition— of fiddling around until his opponent may have gone as far as match point and then opening with an attack that brought him the victory. No one but Tilden would dare do a thing like that but still on one has a game good enough to do it.

Billy Johnston seems to be in better physical condition than he has been in several years. He did not take his defeat at Skokie to heart, as he said after the match that he is working his game up gradually for the national championships, and he considered his match against Tilden to be only a part of his training.

Miss Helen Willis, the defending champion, looks as secure in the women's class as Tilden seems to be in his. Competent critics who followed the early tournaments said that the young Berkeley girl was playing better than she ever has and that a well-controlled out stroke has added to the efficiency of her game. Mrs. Molla Mallory, former champion, who was hoping for a big come-back this season, was not impressive in the early tournaments, and she may have difficulty getting through the semi-final round of the nationals.

Miss Mary K. Browne, another former champion, probably will furnish the only real opposition that the champion will have and that may be none too serious as Miss Willis beat her with ease in their first meeting in the east.

Dave Baneroff, manager of the Boston Braves, is making an interesting experiment in trying to turn Bob Smith, an infielder, into a pitcher.

Baneroff had noticed Smith putting a hop on the ball when he was warming up, and he asked him one day to pitch to the batters before the game.

He did so well that Banny asked him if he had ever pitched before, and he said he had pitched about a dozen in the minor leagues.

"I don't want to be a pitcher," he said. "I want to be an infielder."

"You'll never get any place as an infielder," his manager replied, "You'd better get a pair of plates and report to the bull pen."

After he had worked a few times as a relief pitcher, Baneroff started him against the Pirates and he beat them.

There are numerous examples of a pitcher turning into an outfielder or an infielder, but there have been very few instances where a player was converted into a successful pitcher.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero—Pep Young Giant's outfielder, slid home through deep mud on Meadows' wild pitch and scored the run that beat the Pirates, 2 to 1.

With a five run rally in the eighth inning the Athletics grabbed the game away from the Browns, and won 6-4.

Four bad errors committed by the Indians gave the Washington Senators a 3 to 2 victory.

Osborne and Vance stopped the Reds and the Robins copped a double header, 7 to 3 and 12 to 7. Osborne pitched after one day's rest.

Ty Cobb stole third in the tenth inning and went home on Heilman's infield out with the run that gave the Tigers an 8 to 7 victory over the Red Sox.

Ring's wild pitching and timely hitting by the Cards caused the Phils to lose, 5 to 3.

Perfect support behind Genewich gave the Braves a 5 to 3 victory over the Cubs.

A New Type of Service

Employees of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), who have taken advantage of the Company's Stock Purchasing Plan in 1925, will get their stock at $62.00 per share, regardless of what the price may be during the remainder of the year.

This is the average market price for a six months' period ending March 31, 1925.

In reality, Standard Oil employees get their stock at $41.33 per share, as the Company adds, as a gift, 50c. to every dollar invested by the employee.

Regarding the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) Stock Purchasing Plan, Mr. O. A. Mather, in the Chicago Tribune, says:

"Behind this lies a story of relations to employees almost unique in American industry.

"Four years ago the Standard Oil directors translated into action their belief that employees would be more efficient and loyal if they were stockholders and also that they should be permitted to share the profits. While this was not a new idea, the plan worked out by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) was somewhat of a departure from custom.

"The directors announced a five year stock acquisition plan whereby employees might subscribe for stock to the extent of one-fifth of their annual salaries. This constituted a partial payment plan. But as an additional incentive and reward the directors stated that for every dollar put in by an employee the company would add 50 cents. As the price of the stock each year is based on the average market price for a preceding period, the company, in effect, is selling stock to its employees at two-thirds of its market value."

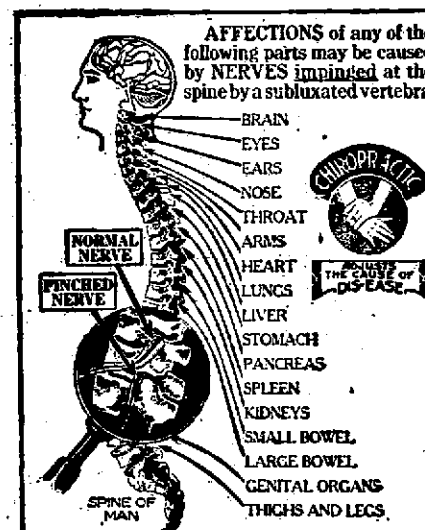

The result of making the employee ownership of stock attractive has been to promote harmony, encourage industrious efficiency and to harbor contentment among the employees; in short, to instill and nourish the spirit of service, which reacts to the distinct benefit of the patrons of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in the ten Middle Western states where the Company is straining every nerve and fibre to serve thirty million people with petroleum products of high quality, when and where they need them.

Chiropractic Gets You Well

The chiropractor examines the spine to find the displacement causing the disease and adjusts it (presses the button, so to speak), releases the normal flow of mental impulses, so that Nature can again restore harmony and health within the body; and that is why we say that Chiropractic Gets You Well!

Lack of health is not only expensive, but is unnecessary. If you will take as much care of your human machine as you do of your automobile you will not be sick.

IN SOCIETY

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon.

The Helping Hand society of the Homer Christian church will meet with Mrs. Cora Burton for an all day meeting Thursday. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shane and three children of Rushville and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lawson of Indianapolis were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stucker of near Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Short delightfully entertained with a dinner party Sunday at their home in West Fifth street. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Pat Joy of Little River, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. David Archey and family of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Neff Ashworth was hostess Monday evening to the members of the Tri Kappa sorority at her home east of the city. It was the regular meeting and the routine program was carried out. No business of importance was transacted at this meeting. A delightful social hour was enjoyed as the closing feature of the meeting dainty refreshments were served to the guests.

SUFFERED TWO YEARS

Finally Relieved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Says Mrs. Anderson

Rangley, Maine. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me greatly for bearing down pains in the sides and back, headaches and tired feelings. I suffered for two years and it seemed as though I could not get my work done from one day to the next. After reading letters from others who had taken the Vegetable Compound I decided to try it and now I can do all kinds of work, sewing, washing, ironing and sweeping. I live on a farm and have five in the family so am busy most of the time. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and hope my letter will help some one to take your medicine." — Mrs. WALTER E. ANDERSON, Box 270, Rangley, Maine.

Over 200,000 women have so far replied to our question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

96 out of every 100 of the replies say, "yes," and because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women it should help you. For sale by druggists everywhere.

The chautauqua boosters and members of their families will enjoy a picnic Friday evening at Memorial park. Each one is requested to bring two articles of food. The supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock.

SPARKS WILL TRY STEPHENSON CASE
Hines said he did not think a special judge would have power to hear the case in an adjourned term, although a regular judge could.

Inman asked Judge Hines to call Judge Sparks to come to Noblesville Friday to confer on the case.

The petition for a change of judge asserted Judge Hines was prejudiced and could not give the defendants a fair trial.

Filing of the motion for a change of judge followed quickly on the prosecution of a petition for a joint trial late yesterday.

Throughout the day Judge. Hines and state's attorneys waited for the appearance of the defense lawyers who had sought the special session of court to take up the Oberholtzer case.

Late in the afternoon Eph Inman of Indianapolis and the other defense attorneys appeared in court.

After Judge Hines had granted the petition for a joint trial, the opposing attorneys were unable to agree on the date for the trial.

During argument on the trial date, Inman and Charles E. Cox, special assistant prosecutor, were prevented from coming to blows by interference of the sheriff.

"I'll not stand your brutality and meanness and impertinence in this case," Cox shouted as a retort from Inman aroused his anger.

Inman characterized Cox as a man "hired to prosecute for blood and vengeance."

The two men stepped toward each other with clenched fists. Judge Hines rapped vainly for order and the sheriff stepped in and ordered both men to their seats.

Stephenson, Klencik and Gentry were in court during the argument. It was the first time they had been out of their cells in the county jail since their bail hearing in June.

Stephenson smiled broadly at a few acquaintances on the way to the courthouse and took a lively interest in the proceedings.

MAN IS ARRESTED
Hubert Mooster was arrested this morning by police chief Blackburn on a charge of being intoxicated, and was placed in jail. He will be arraigned probably Wednesday morning before Mayor Thomas.
